

A SPECIAL WEEKEND: RABBI-IN-RESIDENCE

Rabbi Anne Brener, LCSW, author of the acclaimed Mourning and Mitzvah, will be returning to Temple Beth El!

Weekend of March 26-27

Erev Shabbat, March 26th, 8 PM: Let's Talk About God

As rabbis, we often hear: "Rabbi, I don't believe in God." We must then ask: "Who is the God you don't believe in? Many of us don't believe in that God either!" Rabbi Brener will give us some new ways to understand God that may provide us with renewed comfort and hope.

Shabbat, March 27th, 6:30 PM: A Serious Man – Making Meaning Out of Judaism

Following Havdallah, we will screen the movie "A Serious Man" followed by a discussion, led by Rabbi Brener, about how Judaism can remain relevant in our lives. "A Serious Man" is the story of a modern-day Job trying to find meaning in the tragedies that beset him. Set in a Minneapolis suburb by filmmakers Ethan and Joel Coen, it is a semi-autobiographical tale that takes place during a young man's preparations for his Bar Mitzvah.
